

Arcola Alumni Association

Board of Directors Meeting

December 8, 2011

The Arcola Alumni Association met at the home of Dr. Robert Arrol at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 8th. Robert Arrol, Jack Fishel, Randy Rothrock, John Fishel and Sue Stout discussed the committee's "final push" to solicit funds for the trophy case project. Arrol volunteered to mail letters to selected alumni and community members requesting donations to complete the project. The committee will help Arrol secure the necessary mailing addresses. Stout will work with the Record-Herald to create an ad to promote the project, and will also ask Editor Chris Slack to note the progress of the project in his column. The ad will run two weeks and will be paid from general funds. The committee agreed to pay Kenneth Hostetler an additional $3,000.00 for his work on the trophy cases, bringing the total paid to $9,000.00.

Arrol reported a group of high school students plans to create a wall honoring local veterans at the school. He will contact Emily Coombe to offer the association's help.

The committee is scheduled to meet next on January 19th. The group previously agreed to meet on the third Thursday of odd-numbered months at 7:30 p.m. In addition to other business, discussion will include election of officers, Heather McCullough's replacement on the board and 2012 dues collection.

Respectfully submitted,

Sue Stout, Recording Secretary
